

Professor Bala Khylllep on Partnership

Strengthen the relationship by:

- Schedule a Zoom calls
- Take time to get to know your partner and build trust
- Monthly letters to each other
- A year to 6-month exchange programs of pastors or leaders
- Making sure more individuals involved in the partnership

Seek open communication by improving and finding ways to communicate and pray for one another.

- Educate leaders and all participants on cultural differences
- Having a cultural liaison
- Making use of all the available communication tools
- Listen attentively to your mission partner
- Recognize the power imbalance

Make sure individuals involved in the partnership understand its goal and purpose

- Partnership takes time and energy and should not be entered into lightly
- Remind the reason and benefit of having a global partnership
- Give time and discernment when giving financially
- Clearly communicate when and how those financial gifts will be distributed
